

Modern Charismatic Gift of Tongues—Not Scriptural

They shall speak with new tongues (languages of all nations)

Mark 16:17 And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues;

Revelation 7:9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

Revelation 10:11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

Revelation 11:9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

Revelation 13:7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

Revelation 17:15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

There appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire

Acts 2:3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

They began to speak with other tongues (16 different languages)

Acts 2:4 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Strong's Greek Dictionary, utterance: “to enunciate plainly”

669. ἀποφθέγγομαι apophthengomai (apophthéngomai)

from G575 and G5350; to enunciate plainly, i.e. declare:—say, speak forth, utterance.

We hear in our own tongue, wherein we were born

Acts 2:7-12 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God. And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

Acts 10:45-46 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter,

Acts 19:6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

God gave them (Acts 10) the same gift as he did unto us (Acts 2)

Acts 11:17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?

Divers (different) kinds of tongues (languages)

1 Corinthians 12:10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

1 Corinthians 12:28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

Do all speak with tongues?

1 Corinthians 12:30 Have all the gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

Tongues without charity as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal

1 Corinthians 13:1 ¶ Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

Tongues shall vanish away

1 Corinthians 13:8 ¶ Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

1 Corinthians 14 is the same gift of tongues, as Acts 2, 10 and 19

Members of the church were speaking in diverse tongues (different languages) at the same time, without interpreting what was spoken in the other languages, to an audience that did not understand these other languages, to boast of having a spiritual gift.

Paul admonished the Corinthians to conduct their church services in an orderly manner.

Placing restrictions that there only be one speaker at a time, with an interpretation given, so that others that don't speak the languages may understand what was said..

Greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues

1 Corinthians 14:5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

If I speak with tongues, what shall I profit you

1 Corinthians 14:6 ¶ Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

My understanding is unfruitful (Paul understood what he said)

1 Corinthians 14:14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

I speak with tongues more than ye all

1 Corinthians 14:18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

With men of other tongues, will I speak unto this people

1 Corinthians 14:21 ¶ In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

Tongues are a sign, to them that believe not

1 Corinthians 14:22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

- Speaking divers (different) kinds of tongues (languages, 1 Corinthians 12:10;28), with the same gift as on Pentecost (Acts 2:8-11 and Acts 10:45-46, which exhibited 16 different languages), is a sign to unbelievers.

- Speaking gibberish before a crowd of unbelievers, is not a sign to unbelievers.

The gift of tongues in 1 Corinthians 14 is the same gift of tongues on the Day of Pentecost in Acts 2, and exhibited in Acts 10 and 19.

"Unknown Tongues"

Every instance of "unknown" in 1 Corinthians 14 is in italics, indicating that it was not in the original manuscripts, but rather was added by the translators.

Will not unlearned, or unbelievers, say that ye are mad?

1 Corinthians 14:23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

1 Corinthians 14: Members of the church were speaking in diverse tongues (different languages) at the same time, without interpreting what was spoken in the other languages, to an audience that did not understand these other languages, to boast of having a spiritual gift.

Paul admonished the Corinthians to conduct their church services in an orderly manner. Placing restrictions that there only be one speaker at a time, with an interpretation given, so that others that don't speak the languages may understand what was said..

Forbid not to speak with tongues

1 Corinthians 14:39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

Christians, Being "Slain in the Spirit"—Not Scriptural

"Slain in the Spirit or slaying in the Spirit are terms used by Pentecostal and charismatic Christians to describe a form of prostration in which an individual falls to the floor while experiencing religious ecstasy. Believers attribute this behavior to the power of the Holy Spirit."

Slain in the Spirit - Wikipedia

The soldiers that arrested Jesus Christ fell to the ground

John 18:3-6 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them. As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

The same soldiers, took Jesus, and bound him

John 18:12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,

The soldiers guarding the tomb became as dead men

Matthew 28:2-4 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

The same soldiers accepted a bribe and denied the resurrection

Matthew 28:11-15 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done. And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you. So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

There are no Biblical examples of Christians falling to the ground by the power of the Holy Ghost.
