

Anakim, The

This document discusses the Anakim, a race of giants described in the Bible.

- Descent: They were descendants of Arba, and divided into three tribes: Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai.
- Location: They primarily lived in the mountains of Judah, with Hebron as their chief city.
- Physical Attributes: The Anakim were known for their immense strength and stature, causing fear among the Israelites.
- Conflict with Israelites: The Israelites were initially terrified by the Anakim's size and power. However, Caleb, due to his faithfulness, was granted Hebron as his inheritance and drove out the Anakim from the city. Othniel, Caleb's brother, also conquered Debir (Kirjath-sepher) and drove out the Anakim there.
- Near Annihilation: Joshua and the Israelites nearly wiped out the Anakim from the land, with only a few remaining in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.

Overall, the document portrays the Anakim as a formidable and powerful race that posed a significant challenge to the Israelites. Despite their fearsome reputation, the Anakim were ultimately defeated and nearly exterminated by the Israelites under the leadership of Joshua and Caleb.
