

Antichrist

This document discusses the characteristics and nature of the Antichrist, primarily based on biblical references.

- The Antichrist is defined as one who denies both the Father and the Son, as outlined in 1 John 2:22. This denial is a fundamental characteristic of the Antichrist.
- Another key trait of the Antichrist is the denial of the incarnation of Christ, which is highlighted in 1 John 4:3 and 2 John 7. These verses state that those who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh are deceivers and antichrists.
- The document also notes that the spirit of Antichrist was already prevalent during the Apostolic times, as indicated in 1 John 2:18. This suggests that the Antichrist is not solely a future figure but also represents a spirit or ideology that has been present throughout history.
- Deception is emphasized as a characteristic of the Antichrist in 2 John 7. This aligns with the broader biblical narrative that portrays the Antichrist as a deceiver who leads people astray.

The document provides a concise overview of the Antichrist based on specific biblical passages. It highlights the core tenets of the Antichrist's nature, which revolve around denial of the Father and Son, denial of Christ's incarnation, and deception.

Antichrist

Denies the Father and the Son.

1 John 2:22 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

Denies the incarnation of Christ.

1 John 4:3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

2 John 7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

Spirit of, prevalent in Apostolic times.

1 John 2:18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

Deceit, a characteristic of.

2 John 7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

Bible concordance for ANTICHRIST

⇒ See Antichrist in McClintock and Strong.

⇒