

Ass, The Wild

This document focuses on the wild ass and its characteristics, using Biblical verses to illustrate its behaviors and symbolism.

- Habitat and Behavior: Wild asses live in desolate, barren areas and mountains, searching for greenery. They bray when hungry and suffer during scarcity. They are free, untamed, solitary, and disregard their pursuers.
- Biblical Symbolism: The wild ass is used to represent the intractability of natural man, the pursuit of sin by the wicked, Israel's idolatry, the Assyrian power, and the Ishmaelites.
- God's Provision: Despite their wild nature, God provides for wild asses by sending springs into valleys for them to drink.

Overall, the document highlights the wild ass's independent nature and its symbolic representation of untamed and unyielding aspects, both in nature and within humanity.
